RE: USA v. Robert Bleyle, et al., Case No. 05-CR-217 (FJS)
Request for Adjournment of Video Conference on Supervised Release Violation

Dear Judge Scullin:

I have received notice today that my client, Robert Bleyle, has been detained in Binghamton on a supervised release violation and that the matter has been scheduled for a video conference on March 6th at 9:30 AM. However, I am scheduled to begin a trial that morning in state court, before Judge Brunetti, and cannot be available for the video conference, but Judge Brunetti has advised the parties that he will not be available for a continuation of the trial on Wednesday, March 8th, and I would request that the video conference be adjourned to that date, or to Friday, March 10th, by which time I expect the trial to be over.

Respectfully,

Clarence Q. Johnson, Esq.
Attorney for Defendant Bleyle

*Request granted.
Presentence release violation reset for 3/13/06 at 3:00pm, in Syracuse.*

SO ORDERED

Frederick J. Scullin, Jr.
